

*The Tikvah Center
for Law & Jewish Civilization*

The NYU Institutes on the Park

The Jean Monnet Center for International and Regional Economic Law & Justice

THE NYU INSTITUTES ON THE PARK

European Journal of International Law

I·I·I·J

INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW AND JUSTICE
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

The Enduring Legacy of Just and Unjust Wars - 35 Years Later

November 8-10, 2010
D'Agostino Hall,
Lipton Hall

Admittance by invitation only

November 8

2:00 PM

Registration

2:45 PM

Welcoming Remarks

3:00 - 4:00 PM

1) What has Changed and not Changed About War in Recent Decades?

Speaker: Allan Silver (Columbia), 'Not War, Not Peace' - America since 1945

Speaker: Azar Gat (tel-Aviv U.), Liberal Democracy and the Changes in War

4:45 - 6:15 PM

2) Jus ad Bellum and Jus in Bello

Speaker: Professor Joseph Weiler (NYU), The Enduring Logic of Equal Application Principle; Can/Should the JIB remain independent from JAB (asymmetric conflicts, humanitarian interventions, capabilities)

Commentator: Yitzak Benbaji (Bar-Ilan/Yale)

7:00 PM

Dinner (by invitation only)

7:00 - 8:45 PM

Dinner Lecture:

Speaker: Rob Howse (NYU), Thucydides and Just War

November 9

Morning Session

8:30 AM

Breakfast made available

9:00 - 10:15 AM

3) Nationality and Humanitarianism

Speaker: David Luban (Georgetown), Risk Taking and Force Protection

Commentator: Col. (ret.) Daniel Reisner (HFN law firm; formerly, IDF Int. Law Dept.)

10:30 - 11:45 AM

4) Jus ante Bellum

Speaker: Steven Haines (Geneva Centre for Security Policy), Jus ante Bellum: Myth or Religion

Commentator: Brian Orend (Waterloo)

12:00 - 1:15 PM

5) Jus post Bellum

Speaker: Larry May (Vanderbilt), Proportionality in the Fog of War

Commentator: Ruti Teitel (NYLS/LSE)

1:15 - 2:15 PM

Lunch

November 9

Afternoon Session

2:30 - 3:45 PM

6) Non-International Armed Conflicts

Speaker: Francoise Hampson (Essex), Wars of national liberation, secessionist movements, failed states

Commentator: Sandesh Sivakumaran (Nottingham)

4:00 - 5:15 PM

7) Responsibility to Protect

Speaker: Terry Nardin (National University Singapore), From right to intervene to duty to protect

Commentator: Ryan Goodman (NYU)

5:30 - 6:45 PM

8) Nuclear Weapons

Speaker: Michael Glennon (Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy), Preempting Proliferation: International Law, Morality, and Nuclear Weapons

Commentator: Matthew Waxman (Columbia)

7:00 PM

Dinner (by invitation only)

8:00 - 9:00 PM

Discussion

Informal talk between Moshe Halbertal (Hebrew University/NYU), Jean Bethke Elshtain (Chicago), and Abdulaziz Sachedina (UVA), Traditions of Just and Unjust War in Light of the Old and New Battlefields

Moderated by Michael Walzer and Joseph Weiler

November 10

Morning Session

8:30 AM

Breakfast available

9:00 - 10:15 AM

9) Cyber Warfare

Speaker: Jack Goldsmith (Harvard) , How Cyber Changes the Laws of War

Commentator: Christopher Joyner (Georgetown)

10:30 - 11:45 AM

10) Nonstate Terrorism and Asymmetric Warfare

Speaker: Iain Scobbie (SOAS), Does far-reaching terrorism by small groups, and the nature of state responses call for new rules?

Commentator: Toni Erskine (Aberystwyth University)

12:00 - 1:15 PM

11) From Longbows to Drones: The Growing Impersonality of War

Speaker: Ken Anderson (American University), Every death a targeted killing: Necessity, distinction, and Proportionality in a fully realized intelligence regime of remote drone-delivered targeted killing.

Commentator: Paul Kahn (Yale)

1:15 - 2:15 PM

Lunch

November 10

Afternoon Session

2:15 - 3:30 PM

12) Privatization and Civilianization

Speaker: Col. Hays Parks (DOD), Outsourcing traditional military duties and the law of war

Commentator: Martha Minow (Harvard)

3:45 - 5:00 PM

13) Victory

Speaker: Gabriella Blum (Harvard/NYU), The Fog of Victory

Commentator: Gen. (ret.) Charles Dunlap (Duke, formerly U.S. Air Force JAG)

5:00 - 6:00 PM

14) Concluding Remarks

Michael Walzer, Francesco Francioni, Joseph Weiler, Iain Scobbie, Gabriella Blum

