

DR JÜRGEN KURTZ

Dr Jürgen Kurtz is an Associate Professor at the University of Melbourne in Australia. Jürgen researches and teaches in the various strands of international economic law, including the jurisprudence of the World Trade Organization and that of investor-state arbitral tribunals. He has held research fellowships at the Jean Monnet Center for International and Regional Economic Law and Justice at New York University (as an Emile Noël Fellow), the University of Michigan Law School (as Grotius Fellow) and the Academy of International Law in The Hague. He is a Director of Study at the Academy of International Trade and Investment Law in Macau and convened the inaugural General Course on International Investment Law at the Academy. Most recently, Jürgen joined the Global Faculty at Universidade Católica in Lisbon, the Centre for Transnational Legal Studies in London, Bocconi University in Milan and was appointed Fernand Braudel Senior Fellow at the European University Institute in Florence.